

Who is God calling us to be?
Western Region, Assembly 2017
St. Charles, MO

- To be the love, face of God inter-culturally, radically and inter-spirituality, emphasizing race/Black/Muslim- Earth based
- To be Love in the World
- To be peacemakers in a world broken by war
- Love, peace, positive energy
- To be the Love of God, the face of God, the presence of God in our world
- Inclusiveness – one Body
- Lovers caught up in God's embrace
- Women of heart, make a path to ??? heart
- Be open
- Called to be more open to new – share more: what is happening in the world
- Called to be women of compassion: decisions from the heart, intentional women to be more loving with each other and the world, use resources in prudent/intentional way to help the world
- Be more human to each other
- Do not get defensive or in a winning mode.
- To be loving, forgiving, patient: Live it with each other and way of acting sisterly
- To be Heart of God for each other and others in encounter
- God called his son. Same God is calling me.
- To be dink, forgiving, patient: Live it with each other and way of acting sisterly
- To be Heart of God for each other and others in encounter
- Deals w our impact on each other. Nonviolence
- Stand up to violence, even to each other
- Forgiveness toward each other
- No violence to others – bodies, earth
- To be more radical, willing to risk with others: transparent, compassionate, responding with tenderness and love the moment
- Inclusivity
- To be women of discernment asking what are new needs/what is new reality
- Contemplative, to deepen the Love with Jesus; to have the same sentiments
- To grow in the spirit
- To deepen ???? that silence in order to be the love of God in the world
- To be the heart of God in the world
- To discern what God is calling each of us to do
- To be attentive to recognizing the face of God
- To be God in all that god is around me.
- To deepen the silence in ourselves in order to be the Love of God in the World

- Who are “we” and “us” women of prayer, through prayer – how to build a home, a just world, use our resources
- Mindfulness: stop, look and listen
- God call us TO BE – Listening/Being
- Called to be people of Spirit. Presence In the world. Heart of Jesus in the World
- Contemplatives in Action: Jesus is way of life
- Where do I need to put my heart?
- Listen to the heart of the world? We are all different but Love coming through contemplation makes us more and more ourselves, each one in her unique way.
- To collaborate more with others
- To educate ourselves and others in need
- To learn to see the face of God in everybody
- To put out energy that is positive
- To find where we can't find the face of God
- New Frontiers – what are they?
- Whoever to communicate God's Love in every encounter. See God in all faces. Be peacemakers. Small is beautiful.
- Body life – our spirituality is to amplify heart
- Lavish hospitality: welcoming/enabling/sharing our riches with those from other provinces to come for study/educational possibilities
- Be more aware of the needs of the world
- Prophetic witness: love of each other, the world
- Lifelong learners
- Corporate voice against injustice of some of the political policies
- Fund set up for the Mother House to use for the International Society at their discretion
- Common Bank/Common Funds $ and People resources anonymously given from Provinces
- More networking – establish the network for collaboration for things we are involved with such as trafficking, refugees, immigrants.
- Care with regard to having money, care regarding what happens to us when you have money. Premature to talk about this
- Meant to be Jesus for the World. Know the least doing it
- Meant to be Jesus for the World. Know that lent is doing it
- God called his son. Same God is calling me.
- Life and ministry of Province. Cries of hope in the world Beloved for me and you.
- Deals w our impact on each other. Nonviolence
- Stand up to violence, even to each other
- Forgiveness toward each other
- Spirituality that spreads out to others
- Three themes: One Body (internal/external) Living more Humanly (loving and attentive) Collaborate with others. Share financial resources